

Stacy Johnson
CEO / Founder

After leaving an alcoholic and neglectful mother and entering the foster care system at the age of two, Stacy Johnson spent the next 14 years moving from foster home to foster home, dreaming that someday she would open a children’s shelter and help other kids like herself.

In May of 2014, that dream came to fruition as she finally opened the doors of Central Texas Table of Grace, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that exists to provide emergency shelter services to the foster children and administers a Supervised Independent Living program for young adults aging out of foster care (via our Grace365 program). In 2021, NBC’s KXAN recognized Stacy as the “Most Remarkable Woman of the Year” in Central Texas. In 2022, the Texas Women Foundation selected Stacy for their “Young Leader Award,” and she was featured by Success Magazine in their inaugural Women of Influence. In 2023, Chick-fil-A selected Central Texas Table of Grace to receive the “True Inspiration Award.”

